Hallar, L - French Music for Accordion Vol 1

The music of France reflects a diverse array of styles. In the field of classical music, France has produced several prominent romantic composers, while folk and popular music have seen the rise of the chanson and cabaret style. The earliest known sound recording device in the world, the phonograph, was patented in France by Édouard-Léon Scott de Martinville in 1857.

Music of France - Wikipedia

Accordion is not only prominent in French music, but in the whole folklore of Europe. Interestingly, it was inspired by a Chinese instrument called Sheng, and various early versions appeared in Austria in the 19th century, until the final model wa...
