The world economic climate at the dawn of the 1980s drove many manufacturers to expand their ranges with less expensive entry level offerings and Mercedes-Benz was no different with the debut of their W201/190 series in 1982. The 190 was slotted below the W123 series and was the result of an almost 2 billion DM investment in research and development, as well as investments in production facilities dedicated to the model.
